17th Annual Neuromuscular Plasticity Symposium

The Department of Physical Therapy held its annual Neuromuscular Plasticity Training Symposium on March 17th and 18th. On March 17th, 16 of the BREATHE T32 and the Neuromuscular Plasticity T32 Trainees gave data blitz presentations highlighting their cutting-edge research.

The Plenary Lectures on Friday, March 18th, featured three renowned researchers, Darcy Reisman, PhD, PT, FAPTA, (University of Delaware), Carlos B. Mantilla, MD, PhD, (Mayo Clinic), and Samuel R. Ward, PT, PhD (UC - San Diego). Special Guest NMPT Scholars included Zoe Villamar (Northwestern University), Jacob Parson (Washington University Medical Center), and Jonathan Enders (Kansas University Medical Center). In the afternoon 52 dynamic poster presenters presented their research to esteemed judges.

Sponsored by the interdisciplinary Training in Rehabilitation and Neuromuscular Plasticity (T32 HD043730) and Breathing Research and Therapeutics (T32 HL134621) Training Programs, the Department of Physical Therapy, and the College of Public Health and Health Professions.
